Guilford Art League announces its

71st Annual Juried Exhibition & Sale

September 10 - 29, 2018

A Juried Show for Connecticut Artists at the Mill Gallery, Guilford Art Center, Route 77, Guilford, CT

JUROR

Sheila Levrant de Bretteville

Sheila Levrant de Bretteville is the Caroline M. Street professor at Yale University's School of Art, the first woman to receive tenure at this school. In addition to receiving a BA in Art History from Barnard and a MFA from Yale, de Bretteville has honorary doctorates from five colleges of Art and Design. Her site-specific, public artwork is permanently embedded within neighborhoods on both coasts of the United States, Russia and China, while her earliest print graphics—posters, books and fine press editions—are in the special collections at New York's MOMA and London's V & A Museum and are in current exhibitions in San Francisco, Minneapolis, London.

The Guilford Art League was founded in 1947 by a small group of local artists. The objective of the art league is to promote and stimulate interest in the visual arts. Members and associates of the Guilford Art League are a participating and interactive group of artists who learn and benefit from their association with one another.
